To Whom It May Concern

Acrodex is a key part of Toshiba's Information Systems Group business and we have been partners for many years.

As a Performance Reseller, Acrodex has proven their commitment not only to providing their clients with quality products and services through the implementation of Toshiba Notebook Computer solutions, but also their commitment to maintaining a valued business relationship with Toshiba. As a Toshiba Authorized Sales and Service Provider, Acrodex exemplifies the Toshiba philosophy.

Based on this relationship we look forward to working together with Acrodex to give all of their accounts the best level of service and support.
